THE COMPETITION

- The competition will be divided into four categories: strings, woodwinds/brass, percussion, and double/triple concertos;
- No more than five winners will be chosen. The judges have the right to choose no winners if the level of performance does not meet the standards of competition. The decision of the judges is final;
- The judges will announce the winners immediately after the competition;
- SJYS members and parents are welcome to attend the competition as observers;
- SJYS expects that the winners keep their performance level as high or higher by the first rehearsal date with the orchestra. There will be a mandatory meeting with the conductor one month prior to the first rehearsal date, where the winners are expected to demonstrate their competence in performing the work.
- Competition winners must be prepared to play their piece for any set of the following season in the event of an exigency, regardless of which set they are initially assigned to perform or will be disqualified from playing.
